JOHN C. FAIR

TO THE REPUBLICANS OF KNOX COUNTY

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the Republican nomination for Juvenile Judge of Knox County, subject to the action of the Republican Primary of March 21st, 1918.

I have taught a number of public schools in this State and know how to deal with children and their parents.

I have practiced law at the Knoxville bar for more than twenty years, and I feel that I am as well qualified to perform the duties pertaining to this office, both for the benefit of the public, and the rising generation, as any man in Knox County.

I have been a life long Republican, have always worked for the interest of the party, and I earnestly appeal to all Republicans to favor me with their active support and influence in the primary and if nominated and elected, I will devote my entire time and abilities to performing the duties of the office for the welfare of all concerned. I will certainly appreciate your active support and influence in the primary.

Sincerely yours,

JOHN C. FAIR

TENNESSEE GLEANINGS

News of Interest Prepared in Epitomized Form by Special Writers

Nashville.—An important war conference was held in the State Council of National Defense, at which were present Governor Rye, Rutledge Smith, chairman State Council of National Defense; Dr. H. A. Morgan, federal food administrator; W. E. Myer, federal fuel administrator; Col. Sam L. King, director United States public service reserve; Prof. P. H. Harned, president Tennessee Board of Education, and Prof. S. W. Sherrill, state superintendent of public instruction. The subject of the meeting was to correlate and make effective the tremendous school organization of Tennessee, and in order to successfully accomplish this work, it was deemed best that Prof. Albert L. Williams, state high school inspector, should be designated as director of the mobilization of boys and take up the work in the state council as one of the active directors of the war organization.

Memphis.—Fire, which the fire department officials believe to have been of incendiary origin, destroyed the plant of the Memphis Furniture company, causing a loss estimated at $150,000. A pile of sacks and rags, saturated with benzine and naphtha and placed in the engine room, was used in firing the structure.

Dyersburg.—The body of Harry Calcutt of this city was found in Reelfoot Lake by searchers who had been dragging the lake. Mr. Calcutt, who was a lumber man, disappeared Dec. 19, when he left a party of friends with whom he had been hunting with the intention of skating across the lake to his lumber camp at Markham.

Chattanooga.—"Flour bootleggers" have sprung up here, according to the county fuel administrator. Disregard of the regulations governing the sale of wheat flour by suburban grocers will lead to the prohibiting of jobbers and wholesalers from selling to these "unpatriotic" merchants.

Nashville.—In order to facilitate and advance the war work of Tennessee women, Mrs. Alex S. Caldwell is back of a plan to correlate the activities of the three great branches of effort the State Federation, the Woman's Council of National Defense and the Home demonstrators.

Knoxville.—Stuart Lillard, of Decatur, a member of the U. S. engineering corps, who was on the Tuscania when torpedoed, is a graduate of the school of engineering, University of Tennessee, 1916. His name appears among the survivors.

Chattanooga.—Following the finding of the body of Private Ira Dewey Addy, Fifty-Second Infantry, near Wilder monument, Chickamauga Park, Private McIntosh, his tentmate, is under arrest, charged with murder.

McMinnville.—Frank Russell Cardwell enjoyed a visit with his mother, Mrs. Frank Cardwell. Mr. Cardwell enlisted in the navy last June and recently landed in this country from his second trip to France.

Nashville.—Simultaneously with the arrest of his brother-in-law, Homer C. Cuffman, on the charge of failing to show his final classification card, Thomas Jackson Sanders, a carpenter, committed suicide.

Knoxville.—The L. & N. is again receiving live stock and perishable freight at this point. The embargo, effective to Cincinnati because of the flood conditions, has been lifted.

Martin.—The Martin chapter of the Red Cross is doing its part in the great work of prosecuting the war.

Knoxville.—J. Rollo Emert, until recently editor of the London County Record, has gone to Urbana, Ill., to enter the ground school for aviation in the University of Illinois for ground training preparatory to piloting an airship for Uncle Sam.

Union City.—In memory of Private Milton Talley, the most impressive obituary ever held here was observed. All business was suspended and for 20 minutes a complete silence settled over the town. Pedestrians stood with uncovered heads while taps was sounded by two buglers and a salute of guns was fired. Flags on the government buildings and other places fluttered at half-mast.

Knoxville.—The federal grand jury returned 23 indictments against 47 defendants, including coal operators, coal dealers and coal brokers of the East Tennessee field, charging violations of the Lever control bill.

Trezevant.—Members of the local chapter of the American Red Cross have been asked to furnish 250 pillows for use at the front in caring for wounded soldiers on the battlefield.

Sends New Rules for Hotels.—The federal food administration department has sent to the county administrators copies of the government regulations governing hotels, restaurants, clubs, dining cars and other eating establishments of the state, and also a general plan of how the United States food administration proposes to handle the food situation.

The state administrator says that many hotels and public eating places are not observing the request of the federal food administration. A letter sent out to the various county administrators yesterday requested that they ascertain the names of those public eating places, hotels, restaurants, etc., which are loyally supporting the food administration by observing in good faith its requests. To each will be sent attractive signs, both for outside and inside use. The federal administrator also desires to get a list of the places where the requests of the food administration are unpatriotically ignored.
